FROM THE CONSTITUTION & BYLAWS COMMITTEE

Official Proposal for Church Vote

From the Constitution and Bylaws Team

Your MV Constitution and Bylaws Team now formally brings the proposed Draft of Mount Vernon Baptist Church Bylaws and Operations Manual Edits to the church as a proposal for approval.

A church-wide vote will be held during business sessions at the conclusion of each morning worship service on Sunday, July 6, 2025.

We appreciate your prayerful consideration of these proposals

A draft of the recommendation to approve the newly revised bylaws was distributed in both hard copy and digitally over two weeks ago.

Comments and suggestions were solicited from the members. During these two weeks, two town hall meetings were held to hear any such suggestions and comments.

In response to what was discussed in those meetings, we offer the

BEING PREPARED FOR NEXT STEPS

Should the church vote favorably on the above amendments, Dr. Horner will bring the following motion:

At the recommendation of the Interim Senior Pastor, the pastoral staff offers the following motion.

“In order to examine candidates for the offices of elder and deacon, a Nomination Review Team is needed. Since this group will not be in place in time for the first group of elders and deacons to be reviewed, an ad hoc team will be needed. Once the nominations are complete, the Team will be dissolved.

Therefore, I move that an interim Nomination Review Committee be formed consisting of two deacons (Jeff Greene, Mitchell Gragg), two pastors (Bud Russell, Jason Powers), one ALT member (Dustin Petrey) and the Interim Senior Pastor (David Horner) as a non-voting advisory member of the team.”
